

Suicide Screening and Referral Training for Washington - 3Hr

This course discusses suicide prevention strategies for healthcare professionals, including identification of suicide risk factors, use of validated screening tools, components of comprehensive suicide risk assessment, determination of appropriate levels of care, referral decision-making, and continuity of care practices. Cultural considerations, patient safety strategies, and provider well-being are also addressed to support safe and effective clinical practice.

- Program Faculty and Credentials:
Oniel Laucella, DNP, MBA, APRN, RN,
PMHNP-BC, APHN-BC, CWP, CPAHA
- Number of Contact Hours: 3
- Learning Objectives
 - Describe key terms related to suicidal thoughts, behaviors, and attempts
 - Identify common suicide risk factors and protective factors
 - Differentiate suicide screening from comprehensive suicide risk assessment
 - Describe when and how to screen children, adolescents, and adults for suicide risk
 - Analyze the components of a comprehensive suicide risk assessment
 - Apply screening and assessment findings to determine suicide risk level
 - Select appropriate levels of care and referral options for individuals at risk for suicide
 - Explain the role of continuity of care in suicide prevention following a crisis or hospitalization
 - Identify best practices for connecting patients with follow-up mental health services and crisis resources
 - Describe key terms related to suicidal thoughts, behaviors, and attempts

Schedule and Format:

Online, Asynchronous

Required Materials and Equipment:

Internet access. Courses may be taken in written or audio format

Fees:

$39.00 annual fee, unlimited courses

Refund Policy:

30-day money back guarantee, provided refund requirements are met. Full Refund policy can be found at

<https://ceufast.com/tos#refund>

CEUFast, Inc.

5320 Winding Lakes Drive
Cumming, GA 30028
www.ceufast.com

Event Date/Time: 3/20/26

CEUFast, Inc. (BOC AP#: P10067) is approved by the Board of Certification, Inc. to offer continuing education to Certified Athletic Trainers.